

The Madison Group

The Madison Group is a lobbying and consulting firm specializing in tax, technology, telecommunications, trade, and transportation. Focused primarily on generating revenue for the small collection of clients it works for, The Madison Group is dedicated to providing the highest level of services while helping to execute the public policy goals of their clients.